

Watch the video of Anna Llenas' 'The Colour Monster' found at the following link:

- What did you think of the book?
- Was there anything that surprised you?
- Can you make a list of the words the author links with each colour?
- Would you like the same colours to the same words/emotions or would yours be different?
- How would you help the Colour Monster?

This week, I would like you to retell the story from the point of view of the Colour Monster.

- You could maybe write a diary entry which may explain why he feels this way?
- What does he/she think about the girl in the story and the help she is giving?
- Which colour did the monster prefer or dislike the most and why?

- If you write a diary entry remember to begin with, Dear Diary.
- Remember to break down your work into paragraphs.
- Use correct punctuation and grammar.
- Make sure you use capital letters at the start of a sentence, for somebody's name or a place.
- Use similes and metaphors to help describe how the monster is feeling.
